Advanced Spanish through Literature and Film

© 2021 • Paperback • 6 Lessons • 8 1/2" x 10 1/2"

Authors: James C. Courtad, Kathryn Everly, Martín Gaspar

Captivate your students' interest with universally distinguished, relevant film and literature from the Spanish-speaking world. The six theme-related lessons foster engaging, thought-provoking discussion, and analytical writing for advanced-level students.

- Intuitive organization and contemporary, vibrant art that make the text accessible and easy to navigate
- A full color, richly illustrated design for maximum visual contextualization
- Thematic, universally distinguished film and literature from across the Spanish-speaking world
- A variety of literary genres that include short stories, poems, fragments of novels, and plays
- Authors representative of the established literary canon
- A wealth of pre-, while-, and post-activities to support each film and literary selection
- Targeted, while-viewing suggestions that promote efficient viewing
- Activities that help students identify and interpret literary and film techniques
- A process-oriented writing strand where students synthesize all the cultural information presented in the lesson's selections
- NEW online-only Suplemento Literario based on AP® Literature and Culture curriculum featuring thirty AP® texts.

The only online learning environment created specifically for world language acquisition.
