

Intermediate Spanish—A Cultural Approach
© 2022
Available for Fall 2021 classes

Perspectivas is our new intermediate program that invites students on a cultural journey through the diverse practices, products, and perspectives of all Spanish-speaking countries or regions. The goal: develop communicative competence while challenging each student to think critically through personalized, real-world tasks focused on building intercultural competence.

ACTFL standards: This new program is tightly aligned with the ACTFL World Readiness Standards and emphasizes all modes of communication, including intercultural communication.

Authentic content: Exposes students to authentic content of diverse genres such as documentary videos, informational articles and literature, and audio.

Thematic organization: All ten lessons of Perspectivas are organized around three overarching cultural themes: Costumbres y tradiciones, El entorno social, and Formas de expresión.

Supersite: Superior digital platform designed exclusively for language learning (NOT built for other subjects and then retrofitted for language).

News and Cultural Updates: AP® theme-related News and Cultural Updates online tool features contemporary authentic video and reading selections supported by carefully scaffolded activities—updated monthly!

vText: Easy-to-navigate interactive Student Edition with searchable table of contents and page-number browsing for use at home, in class, or on the go.
