

Year-Round Literacy Solutions

Language • Literacy • Content

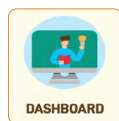

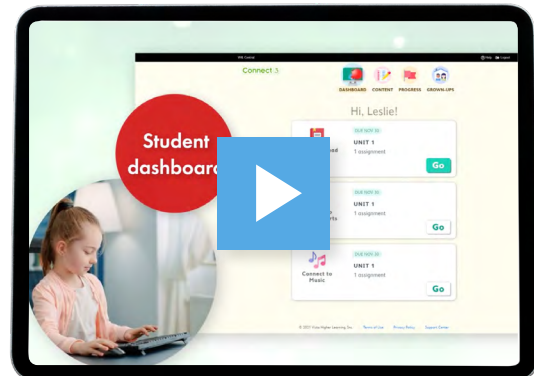

Give ELs and striving readers the boost they need this summer

Comprehensive print & digital programs and targeted solutions:

- Summer-length combined student and practice books with digital access
- Scaffolded Reading Libraries with practice activities and quizzes
- Options for reviewing and re-teaching or frontloading contents to prepare students for the upcoming year

Introducing a New Digital Platform for Elementary Students

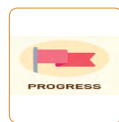

Welcome to Vista's Supersite for elementary students—a digital platform built exclusively to support young learners as they begin their language and literacy journey!

The simplified student Dashboard focuses solely on getting work done. It allows students to easily find upcoming assignments and to move from one activity to the next with the click of a button. Students see their name, chosen avatar, and icons for their daily lessons.

Content, including activities and online books, is easily accessed by the big, friendly button. Activities are organized in small groups for easier navigation.

The Progress view is a kid-friendly gradebook, where the focus is on completion and time spent instead of scores. Simple visuals are used to show complete, missing, or late assignments, and links make it easy for students to access activities with just the click of a mouse.

The Grownups section helps parents and guardians become active partners in their child's learning. They can see posts and notifications from their children's teachers. They can click on the calendar to check any upcoming assignments and open the gradebook to see how their child is performing every step of the way. Finally, in the Resources section, adults have access to information posted by the teacher to keep them informed and engaged in their child's progress.

With the help of Pom Pom the penguin young students are guided through the online learning experience in a way that is fun, interactive, and easy to navigate.

Available for most K-5 titles with student access.

Two-volume format per level (Sail and Soar) also available

NEWCOMER SUMMER PROGRAM

With Get Ready! Sail for students in grades 1–3 and Get Ready! Soar for students in grades 4–6, the curriculum is built on the specialized knowledge necessary for working with culturally and linguistically diverse learners, the assets they bring to the classroom, and the unique academic challenges they face. Get Ready! is written exclusively for younger English learners (ELs) who are identified as newcomers or as students at beginning, entering, or emerging levels.

Flexible curriculum includes two-volume format with combined Student Book and Practice Book.

Standards-based content

Get Ready! covers a rich, comprehensive curriculum that adheres to WIDA, CA ELD, TX ELPS, NGSS, and CCSS standards. In addition, the program builds proficiency in all language skills areas: vocabulary, reading, listening, speaking, writing, and grammar. No other newcomer program teaches content literacy in an academic way!

Text-technology integration

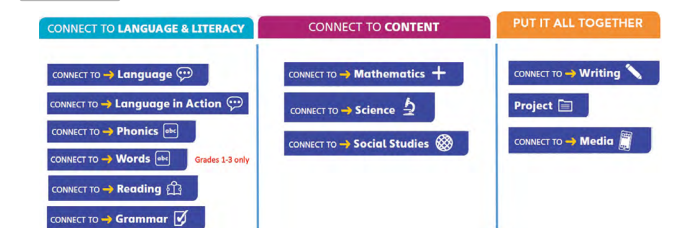

Students and teachers are supported with a complete print program, including articulated readers, as well as unprecedented technology built on an online platform created for language learning.

Differentiated instruction

The program is infused with concrete ways teachers can meet the needs of ELs across the range of abilities, within and across proficiency levels and language domains.

Scaffolded readers

Reading is critical to improving English language proficiency, which is why Get Ready! is supported with a reading library. The Get Reading! libraries include one language arts, one science, one social studies, and one math reader for every unit of the Get Ready! programs—at three levels of readability each.

How It Works

The Standards

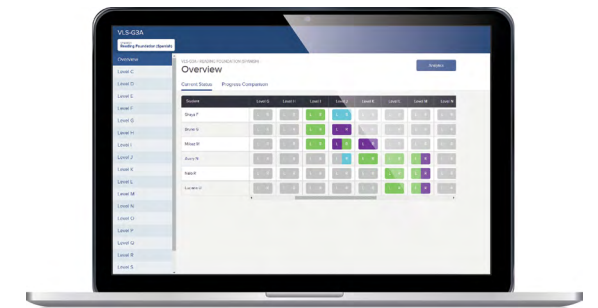

Vista Level Spanish takes each Spanish Language Arts standard and splits it into smaller strands to provide actionable teaching points, and then pairs these standards with text complexity across multiple levels.

Standards progression

The Assessments

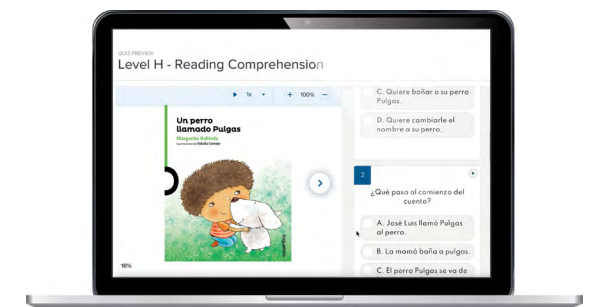

Assessments provide the data teachers need to track student progress in reading comprehension, fluency, language, and/or writing. Each question is written to assess a student's mastery of a specific standard and sub-strand.

Teacher assessment chart

Data-driven Instruction and Practice

Data from the assessments is used to support and guide individualized instruction. The learning modules—with books, videos, mini lessons, games, and quizzes—help to connect the data to standards-based instruction and practice that meets each student's needs.
